

Period of activity: 2007

The activities of the UNESCO Network Pedagogical Education “Multicultural Dialogue Cooperation Programme” in 2007 have significant impact on the human, educational and cultural development at national and regional levels.

The main results of the Network activity:

- Cooperation with colleagues and maintenance of sustainable development in the sphere of educational studies between universities-participants of the Network
- Realization of transparency of educational and pedagogical systems in the context of the Bologna process
- Creation of new educational programmes, providing of tolerant mutual influence and dialog of cultures
- Development of innovative processes in pedagogical practice
- Taking in account Russian and international pedagogical experience in the process of modernization systems of international education
- Pedagogical dialog development at the regional level using UNESCO Institutions: UNESCO Moscow Office, National Commissions for UNESCO, UNESCO International Institute for Educational Planning, The Global University Network for Innovation.