

Liudmila V. Dudova – Associate Professor. First Deputy Director of Commission for science and education development (Civic Chamber of the Russian Federation), Coordination Council Chairperson of “Literature and Russian language teachers Association”, member of Ministry of Enlightenment of the Russian Federation Board, “Russian literature Association”, “Knowledge” (Russian Association) Coordination Council, Council for Russian language under the President of the Russian Federation, Community Councils under the Ministry of Science and Education of the Russian Federation. Academic interests: history of Western Europe Literature, literature comparative study, image of Russia in the foreign countries’ literature and culture, educational policy issues in the system of general and lifelong education. Author of 118 published works dedicated to the history of German literature, the reception of Russia and Russian world in different countries’ literature, studying foreign literature in higher education and studying and teaching of Russian language and literature abroad. She is the author of 3 handbooks of foreign literature for high school and co-author of Russian language textbook for Arabic countries students. An expert in the field of teaching Russian language and literature in the system of general and higher pedagogical education. Works actively in Commission for science and education development, heads Language Teachers All-Russian Association, which has 85 regional and local departments throughout the country.